Group or Cause When You...

Publish Your Own Fundraising Recipe Book!

Dear Friend,

As the new school year kicks off, your groups will be looking for a simple, fun way to earn money for various causes and activities. But buyers have grown weary of the same old sales and promotions.

Thanks to new digital publishing services, creating and publishing books is now an easy and affordable fundraising option for everyone. And recipe books are the most popular category of all books sold.

Imagine, you can create a simple 100 page recipe book, comprised of favorite recipes submitted by parents, grandparents, students, faculty and friends. Your printed book cost is then, just $2.00 each!

These books sell easily throughout the school and community for $12.00 each retail - as a fundraiser - and you keep $10 profit on each book sold!

What makes Recipe Books such a great fundraising opportunity?

- All the book contents (recipes) are submitted by the community so no one works hard
- All those who submit recipes want to buy a copy of the book they helped produce
- You can make this a yearly event, or continue to sell the same book over and over
- You can sell the book you created online to readers around the world for ongoing revenue
- You can create live events (taste testing pot-luck parties) where the recipes are sampled
- The books are all "Print-on-Demand" so you presell...and are never stuck with inventory
- It's a great, fun way to foster community participation and conversation
- Recipe books are THE BEST SELLING category of books sold and are timeless
- Your recipe book creates a great Annual Activity, Legacy or Tradition for your group
- Everyone can say, "I had my recipe published!" for instant fame and celebrity!
